Stunning styles in feather hats At about half price.

WE'VE sold more feather hats this season than ever before—they were never so popular, and, what's more, their popularity will be as enduring as that of any other style brought out this year. To-day they are the ideal hat for automobiling, the carriage, street wear and shopping, and right in the face of their popularity comes this half-price sale—a sale so out of the ordinary that in justice to the hats an explanation is due.

ONE of New York's largest and best known importers—a house that has an international reputation THE extremely low prices on these handsome, dressy, popular feather hats are not made because porters—a house that has an international reputation for smart styles—desired to close their season's business before going to Europe to prepare for Spring trade. They we've a fixed policy to conform to—sell as we buy—takhad 1,000 hats—sold them to us at half in order to close them out in one sale.
